Terrain visé	 A map showing a street grid. A specific plot is highlighted in yellow. The plot is located at the intersection of 'rue L.-Auguste-Hébert' (running vertically on the left) and 'Place Gérard-Bourget' (a curved road at the top). The highlighted plot is a rectangular area with a red outline, situated between the intersection and the next street to the right.
Photo du terrain	 A photograph of a residential street scene. In the foreground, there is a paved parking lot with several cars parked. Behind the parking lot, there are several houses. One house is a two-story white building with a prominent gable roof and a large window. Other houses are smaller, single-story buildings. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds.
